Bespoke personalised artwork for Name A Seat donors

We've commissioned the artist RTiiiKA to create four pieces of artwork to celebrate the joy of live music.

These original artworks will be digitally printed using a high quality Giclée process and will be numbered to commemorate your seat.

The artworks all celebrate our love for live music, that we know our seat donors share with us. These bespoke and limited edition prints will be gifted to you as a certificate of your generous donation.

Biography

RTiiiKA ("aah-teeka") is Rosa ter Kuile.

RTiiiKA's work spans graphic arts, illustration, mural making and street art.

They are the designer behind the Bristol Beacon's new look, and the founder of Women In Paint Collective, a group of 300+ women that hosts monthly paint jams and provides support, advice and visibility for women painting outside.

Besides this, they work with Rising Arts Agency to make the arts more accessible to young people.

Bass Boogie

Nothing gets you moving like the groove of a good bass line. That feeling of rhythm and rumble, that sound that flows through your whole body. This artwork is an expression of infectious groove; a musician spreading the joy, a bass player feeling the boogie.

Love Music

Bristol Beacon exists to spread the joy of live music. Nothing brings us more pleasure than seeing audiences express their love of music. This artwork is an interpretation of the joyful and energetic statement; that life should be filled with love – and ours is music.
