

Intro

Life, a journey lies in front of me
Alone, I step into eternity
Void, a lie I tell the world
Hide, my deepest secrets go unheard Fall, heavy down into abyss
This world, feels like my arch nemesis
Darkness, souls lost amongst the waves
Stars, always seem so far away
Found friends, an emotional embrace
Home now, feel safety in this space
Light up, my way back to me
Community sets my soul free

Verse One

Lightness wraps around my heart
Like an angel's kiss
But it's hard sometimes to see beneath
All the bullshit
You don't understand my mind
And all of the times
I've been mistaken misunderstood
Your treatment of us is just no good
So polish your shit til it shimmers
Glimmer hard but flick our triggers
We're looking for consistency
Don't you know that change is the key

Pre Chorus

I need to be seen, feel free
I need space to just be me yeah I need to be seen, feel free
I need space to just be me

Chorus

So shine your light, it's beautiful
Let emotions fly and make your heart full
Cause when we glow we grow
And when we grow we glow we glow

Verse Two

Can you pull me through this hopeless weather
Make me feel safe and supported
Gimme your robe of reassurance
Too long depending on my endurance
I need your openness to expand
What you think it is to be human
So fragile yet so secure
We won't compromise anymore
Am I selfish I don't know
Feels like I'm losing all control
But when my flame shines differently to yours
I need your softness to accept my warmth

Bridge

I love the light when it shines on me
I feel a little less pain in my body
The warmth of the sky Lifts my heart so high (high) like a flower i turn to you to ease my pain
woh it comes again
like night and day
You are my bitter sweet refrain

Chorus Breakdown

Shine shine shine your light light
shine your light light
shine your light
Shine shine shine your light light
shine your light light
shine your light
