

Bristol Beacon, Oak National Academy Work - Project Brief 2024

Aim: To create lesson videos that will be available as part of the Oak National Academy Primary Music Curriculum resources, as created by Bristol Beacon and Cathedral Schools Trust which will be available to access and download on Oak Academy's free platform.

Scope of Work

- Creation of PiP ('Picture in Picture') teaching videos for the required Units of the Primary Music Curriculum (a Unit is comprised of 6 lessons which will all require videos) You will be teaching the lesson along to the lesson slides, as created by Bristol Beacon and Cathedral Schools Trust. The PiP videos will be recordings of you teaching each lesson (1 video per lesson) as a guide for teachers and additionally serving as a lesson that could be presented directly to a classroom of children (of the relevant year group age), so these videos need to be engaging and professional.
- You will need to hold Qualified Teacher Status, a specialism in Primary Music is preferred.
- PiP videos will be created within ScreenPal software, and you will be provided with a backdrop, microphone, lighting and web-camera to be used to record these videos to the required standard. You will need your own laptop/computer on which to record these videos and send them to Bristol Beacon. You will need to have a suitable space to record these videos (without background noise etc). Videos will be checked by Bristol Beacon and Cathedral Schools Trust to ensure they meet the required standards of delivery, teaching and audio/visual quality before they are signed off.
- You will need to edit these videos into a final product, inserting additional video and audio clips as provided, cutting out any mistakes, and ensuring that the video lessons flow well.
- PiPs will need to be completed for each lesson as directed by Bristol Beacon and will need to comply with Oak National Academy's standards, and within the given deadlines.

Contextual and Additional Information

Bristol Beacon and Cathedral Schools Trust are working with Oak National Academy Limited (Oak) to create Primary Music teaching resources, which will be available on Oak's platform at www.thenationalacademy.com. This platform is free to use and all materials on the site can be downloaded by the general public. Oak provides free teaching resources and video lessons for schools across the UK. Oak resources are published under an Open Government Licence (see <https://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/version/3/>).

Any materials/resources/recorded videos you create for/us may be used in any of the following ways:

- in lesson videos, resources and information on Oak's website, at www.thenationalacademy.com
- in Oak's printed and digital activities, campaigns and communications, for example, blogs, leaflets or adverts in education magazines;
- on Oak's social media pages: eg. Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook and Instagram
- in Oak's advertising campaigns, including paid adverts on social media channels
- in presentations by Oak employees at educational conferences and other external events
- in Oak's other digital channels, such as emails to people who use Oak
- By Bristol Beacon on websites and social media accounts
